THE ADMINISTRATION

George Gund III

CO-CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

When you look at the ownership level in the National Hockey League, you see very few people who play the same game that they operate. Maybe they played when they were kids, but not now. George Gund, who, with his brother Gordon, owns the Minnesota team, is an exception to the rule.

Gund, 45, played an active role on the ice through last season. What's more, the North Star team is not his only hockey property. Gund is an owner of Sun Valley, Idaho, Ice Skating, Inc., and takes a regular shift on defense for the Sun Valley Suns. Gund's interest in the playing end of the game is not new-found. He played hockey as a youngster in his home town of Cleveland and organized the first team at Western Reserve University. He also played for the Cleveland Falcons in that city's league and for city league teams in Seattle and San Francisco.

Gund entered the National Hockey League picture in 1975 when he became part owner of the California Seals. He was instrumental in the move of the California team to Cleveland in 1976 and in the purchase of the team by him and his brother in 1977. It was in June of 1978 when he helped to put together the unprecedented merger of the Minnesota and Cleveland teams and a little over a month later when the Gund brothers assumed 100 percent control of the North Stars.

He served on the board of the Ameritrust Company and is a past Board Member of the Redwood Bank in San Francisco. Along with real estate interests in the Bay Area and Port Angeles, Wash., he has a cattle ranch in Lee, Nev. In addition, he is an importer and distributor of foreign films and chairman of the San Francisco International Film Festival. He was a founding shareholder and past chairman of the Board of the Rusty Scupper Restaurant chain.

Gund is a Trustee of the George Gund Foundation. He is also a trustee of KQED, the Public Broadcasting Station and FM radio station in San Francisco, the San Francisco Art Institute, San Francisco Museum of Art, and a member of the Board of Directors of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame. He is a partner of Gunwyn Ventures, a venture capital company, and Vice Chairman of Gund Investment Corporation. Gund and his wife, Theo, make their home in Sun Valley. They are parents of two boys.

Gordon Gund

CO-CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Gordon Gund's interest in hockey sprang from his days as a boy at Groton School, was reinforced at Harvard University where he played defense for the Crimson, and continues today at the National Hockey League level. Gund, 43, joined his brother, George, in 1977 in ownership of the former Cleveland Barons and played a key role in the summer of 1978 when the Gunds assumed control of the North Stars and the Met Center.

The expertise shown in completion of the merger is typical of Gund's successful, wide-ranging career in business and public service. Gund is founder and managing partner of Gunwyn Ventures of Princeton, N.J., and principal owner and general partner of GUS Enterprises, San Francisco. Gunwyn is a venture capital firm with investments in several industries. GUS Enterprises, formed in 1969, is involved in all phases of real estate development nationally for its own account. Gordon is a director of First Florida Bank of Tampa, Fla.

He has taken a leading role in national charitable/philanthropic endeavors. In 1971, he co-founded the National Retinitis Pigmentosa Foundation (RPF) headquartered in Baltimore, and is now Vice Chairman and Trustee of the RPF. This foundation is dedicated to finding a treatment or cure for retinitis pigmentosa and allied degenerative diseases of the retina which impair the vision of many thousands of children and adults in this country alone, often leading to total blindness. This Foundation now has 44 chapters in 28 states and 14 international affiliates.

Gund was recently appointed as a member of the National Advisory Eye Council (NAEC). NAEC has responsibility for the direction and oversight of federal funds available for eye research nationally. He is president and trustee of the Gund Collection of Western Art, a traveling collection of 70 works of art, representing some of the most recognized American western artists including Remington, Russell, and Bierstadt. Gund is also president of the Board of Trustees of Groton School in Groton, Mass.

He received his A.B. in 1961 from Harvard University. Gund and his wife, Lura, make their home in New Jersey. They are the parents of two boys.

John F. Karr

PRESIDENT

John Karr's tenure as president of the Minnesota North Stars parallels the team's rise to the upper levels of the National Hockey League. Since he took over direction of the organization, the North Stars have been transformed from a last-place team to a Stanley Cup finalist and to a Norris Division champion.

Karr's duties encompass much more than his relationship with the North Stars. He is responsible for all the variety of activities that take place during the operation and promotion of a multi-purpose facility such as Met Center. Karr is president and chief operating officer of the corporation that governs the team and building. He serves on the club's board of directors and is an alternate member of the NHL Board of Governors. He is a director of the Bloomington Chamber of Commerce and treasurer of that organization for 1982-83.

Karr, 53, entered the business world in 1953 after he was awarded his MBA at Indiana University. He served on management teams for the Burroughs Corp., The Trane Co., Arthur D. Little, Inc., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and Cole National Corp. For Cole National, a New York Stock Exchange listed specialty retail company, he served in several capacities including Vice President-Planning, Vice President Finance and Administration and a member of the board of directors. Karr moved into the National Hockey League during the 1977-78 season as president and chief operating officer of the Cleveland Barons. After completion of the history-making amalgamation of the Cleveland and Minnesota teams, Karr was chosen for the same positions with the North Stars.

Karr spent his early days on Michigan's Upper Peninsula in the small town of Allouez. He later moved to Detroit and attended high school in that city. He served two years in the United States Army. Karr graduated in 1952 from Wayne State University. Karr and his wife, Mildred, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of four children, two boys and two girls.

Walter Bush, Jr.

VICE PRESIDENT

One of the first moves made by George and Gordon Gund after they purchased the North Stars was to name Walter Bush, Jr., vice president. They recognized his devotion to hockey, his wide range of knowledge of the sport and its people and his experience as one of the founders of the North Stars and as chief executive of the club. Bush also has served as governor or alternate governor of the team in every year of its existence.

Bush was born in Minneapolis and has been a resident of the Twin Cities all of his life. He attended school, played hockey and was graduated from Breck High and Dartmouth College and earned his degree in law from the University of Minnesota. He was one of three men to bring professional hockey, in the form of the Central League, to Minneapolis. That was the first step on the road to an NHL franchise for Minnesota, a drive spearheaded by Bush.

Bush was chosen winner of the Lester Patrick Trophy in 1973 for his contributions to United States hockey and was named NHL Executive of the Year by the Hockey News in 1972. He was named to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 1980. Bush is chairman of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, secretary of the U.S. Olympic Hockey Committee and vice president of the Amateur Hockey Association of the U.S. Bush, 53, serves as chairman of the AHAUS International Section. Bush serves the United States as a delegate to the International Ice Hockey Federation. He is the first U.S. citizen to serve as vice-president and member of the Board of Governors of the NHL Hall of Fame.

Bush and his wife, Mary, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a girl and two boys.

Lou Nanne

GENERAL MANAGER

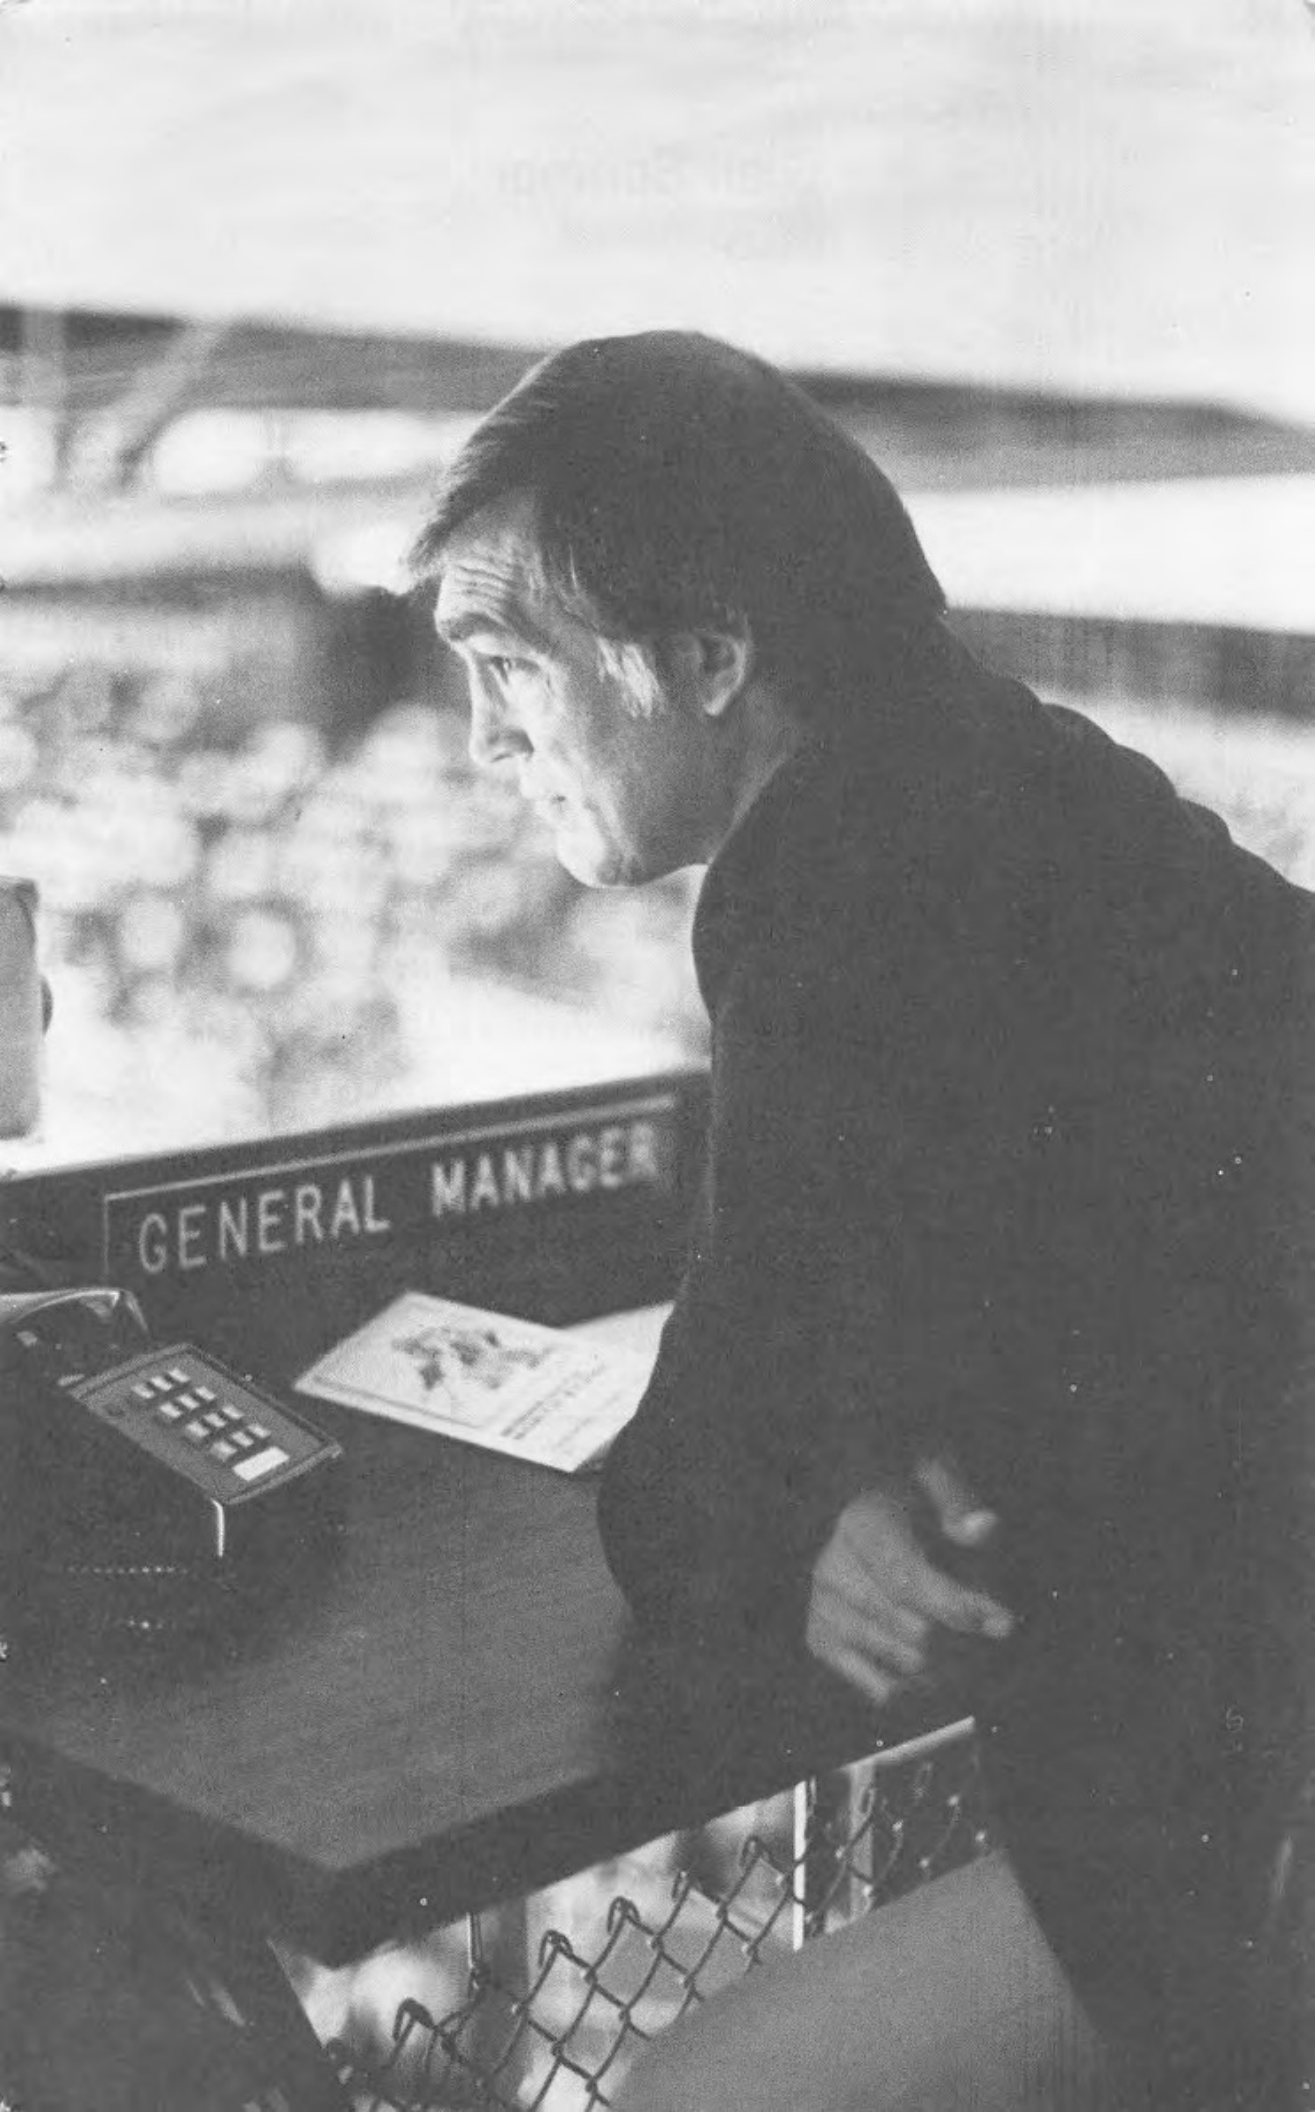

The banner that will be raised to the rafters of Met Center to signify the North Stars' first divisional title (Norris Division, 1981-82) is in most respects the creation of Lou Nanne. He took over the team at its lowest ebb, last overall in 1977-78, and in four seasons brought home the club's first championship. Only four players on the title team remained from the last-place squad inherited by Nanne in 1978. The others were the product of deals and drafts engineered by the North Stars general manager. Nanne also is active at the league level and played a significant role in the negotiations that led to last summer's historic player-owner agreement. This season he will serve as vice-chairman of the NHL general managers' committee and as chairman of the board of the Central Hockey League.

Nanne has been a North Star ever since he turned professional. He was the only performer to play with the North Stars in all of the first 11 years of the team's existence. Over those 11 seasons he played defense most of the time, but had a couple of highly-successful seasons at right wing.

A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nanne played junior hockey with Phil and Tony Esposito, but chose to attend the University of Minnesota where he became the only defenseman to win the WCHA scoring title. A naturalized citizen, he captained the United States Olympic team in 1968. For a number of years he served as color commentator during television broadcasts of the Minnesota high school hockey tournament. He has been and is the most-recognized hockey figure in the state. Nanne, 41, and his wife, Francine, live in Edina. They are the parents of a girl, twin boys and a third boy.

Glen Sonmor

COACH

Glen Sonmor has coached more games (305), won more games (130) and has the best point percentage (.528) of any coach in the North Stars' history. The effervescent Sonmor was particularly pleased with the results of the 1981-82 season when his team won the first divisional championship in the club's history, winning more games and amassing more points than any North Star club. The 53-year-old coach also moved up the longevity ladder in the NHL. Only Al Arbour of the New York Islanders has served the same team more years in succession than Sonmor.

Sonmor can look back on more than 20 years of association with the sport in Minnesota. He spent five full seasons and part of another as coach at the University of Minnesota and more than five years as general manager and as coach of the Minnesota Fighting Saints of the World Hockey Association. He also earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education at Minnesota. He makes his home with his wife, Marcia, in Hopkins.

Sonmor, born in Moose Jaw, Sask., played junior hockey at Guelph, Ont., and Brandon, Man. The bulk of his professional playing career was spent at Cleveland of the American League, but he did play parts of two NHL seasons, 1953-1954 and 1954-1955, with the Rangers. His career on the ice was ended in 1955 when he lost the sight of an eye while playing for Cleveland. John Mariucci of the North Stars, then UM coach, hired Sonmor as freshman coach in 1956. He later coached junior hockey at St. Catharines, Ont., in the AHL at Springfield, Mass., and Ohio State University before returning to the UM as head coach in 1966. Sonmor was named Fighting Saints general manager and coach in 1972 and held either one or both of those positions until that team expired in 1977. He coached Birmingham all of the 1977-78 season.

Murray Oliver

ASSISTANT COACH

Who has the highest winning percentage of all coaches in the North Stars' history? None other than Murray Oliver. He stepped in when Glen Sonmor took a brief vacation from his duties behind the bench last year and compiled a 3-0-1 record for a success percentage of .875. During the balance of the season Oliver assisted Sonmor behind the bench and during practice sessions. He is in charge of travel and hotel arrangements when the club is on the road.

Oliver, 44, has been part of the NHL picture as a player and coach since the 1959-60 season when he played his first full season for Detroit. He also performed at Boston and Toronto before playing his last five seasons at Minnesota. Murray was voted most valuable North Star by his teammates after the 1971-72 season when he scored a career high 27 goals. He holds the team record of five assists in one game.

Oliver was born and raised in Hamilton, Ont., where he played junior hockey and where he was named most valuable player in the Ontario Hockey Association. He and his wife, Helen, and their son and daughter make their home in Edina.

J.P. Parise

ASSISTANT COACH

J.P. Parise starts his fourth season as one of the North Stars' assistant coaches with a wealth of experience not only in that role, but also as one of the National Hockey League's most solid players. Parise is stationed in the pressbox during games and is in two-way radio communication with fellow-assistant Murray Oliver behind the bench. He assists at workouts and takes his turn scouting NHL opponents.

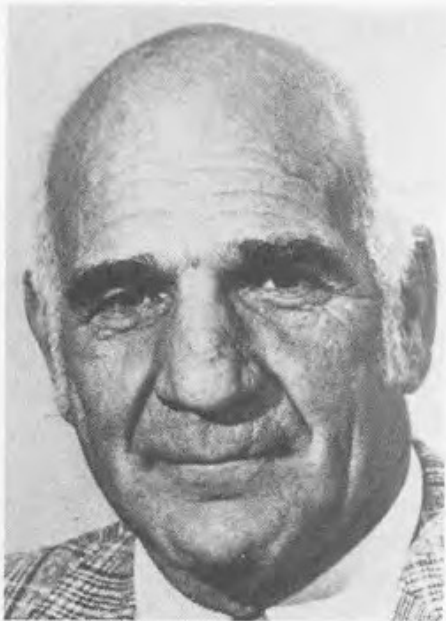

He spent 11 full seasons and parts of three others in the NHL. The majority of those seasons were played in Minnesota where Parise first emerged as a quality NHL forward. He played for eight straight seasons at Minnesota, then for the Islanders and Cleveland before the Barons-North Stars merger brought him back for a last hurrah at Minnesota in 1978-79.

Parise was voted the most valuable North Star in 1969-70 and played for Team Canada in the first Canada-Soviet Union series in 1972. The native of Smooth Rock Falls, Ont., is the No. 2 Minnesota assist leader with 242. He ranks third on the all-time list in points, fourth in goals and fifth in games played. Parise, 41, and his wife, Donna, make their home in Bloomington and are the parents of a boy, Jordan, born during training camp this year.

THE PLAYERS

Kent-Erik Andersson

RIGHT WING

8

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 190 lbs.
185 cm. — 83 kg.

Age: 31 (May 24, 1951)

Born: Orebro, Sweden

Off-Season Home: Karlstad, Sweden

Right Handed, Shoots Right

1981-82 — The North Stars' penalty killing was best in the NHL last year with 49 goals allowed and an 81.9 percent success ratio. One of the key people involved in that outstanding performance was Kent-Erik Andersson. Andersson and fellow-Swede Anders Hakansson made up one of the two teams of penalty-killing forwards. Andersson was on for only 18 of the 49 power-play goals scored against the North Stars. He also took turns at every forward position, playing center, right wing and left wing with equal facility.

His Game — Andersson likes to do most of his penalty killing in the the other team's zone. He is an excellent and tireless skater and displays a gift for stealing the puck from unwary foes. Like many European players, Andersson is seldom out of position, especially in the defensive end of the rink.

Career — Andersson joined the North Stars in 1977 after playing for Farjestads in his native Sweden. That makes him No. 3 on the North Stars' seniority list. Only Fred Barrett and Tim Young have played longer at Minnesota. His offensive output has followed an up and down pattern, from highs of 15 and 17 goals to a low of nine. But his defensive performances have stayed on a steady plane — all excellent. It also is no coincidence that Minnesota's penalty killing has been in the NHL's front rank since Andersson flew across the Atlantic to join the North Stars.

Notes — Played for Sweden in last fall's Canada Cup series ... Wears contact lenses when he is playing ... Nickname is Kenta ... He and his wife, Lotta, are the parents of two daughters ... Missed seven games last season with a bruised foot ... Enjoys sailing during the off-season ... Was named most improved player on the Minnesota squad during the 1980-81 season.

Obtained — Signed as free agent, June, 1977.

Fred Barrett

DEFENSE

3

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 195 lbs.
180 cm. — 87 kg.
Age: 32 (Jan. 26, 1950)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Off-Season Home: Ottawa, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

1981-82 — Fred Barrett reached a landmark this season when he became the North Stars' all-time leader in games played. He has played 679 games over 11 regular seasons, breaking the old record of 670 held by Bill Goldsworthy. The 69 games played by Barrett during 1981-82 were not essentially different from the 610 games that preceded them. He played his usual hard-hitting style and took 89 minutes in penalties. Not many, but more than ever before. He scored one goal and it came five games from the end of the regular season. He skated on nearly every penalty-killing effort by the North Stars and was on for only 23 of the 49 goals allowed by the Minnesota penalty killers. It was, in short, a typical Barrett season.

His Game — Barrett takes the body whenever he can. He takes it hard and takes it often. He takes it game in and game out. Considering his style, he spends relatively little time in the penalty box. He has, however, spent a fair amount of time in a hospital with such varied injuries as a broken femur, broken hand (twice) and calcium deposits in his thigh. The injury problems seem to have smoothed out over the last three seasons when he has played without a major setback in all three years.

Career — He has played with such skill on the Minnesota defense that he has been chosen a record four times as winner of the Tom Dill Cup awarded to the team's best defenseman. Barrett's career spans the good, the bad and the ugly years of the North Stars' history. During that time he has played as a regular each season.

Notes — Barrett is the North Stars' player representative. His younger brother, John, who plays for Detroit, fills the same role with the Red Wings . . . Fred and his wife, Lois, are the parents of two sons . . . Played junior hockey for the Toronto Marlboros . . . Nickname is Swoop . . . He and General Manager Lou Nanne each have played a record 11 seasons at Minnesota.

Obtained — Second-round choice (20th overall) in 1970 draft.

Don Beaupre

(BO-pray)

GOALTENDER

33

Height: 5-8 — Weight: 149 lbs.
170 cm. — 67 kg.

Age: 21 (Sept. 19, 1961)

Born: Kitchener, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Burnsville, Minn.

1981-82 — The puck that clanged off Don Beaupre's rib cage early in the North Stars' exhibition season last fall left a black and blue mark, but the bruise disappeared long before the effects of the injury. It took the second-year goaltender more than a month and a half to return to NHL playing form. There were a good many high notes during the balance of the season and Beaupre's 3.71 goals-against average would be envied by the majority of NHL goalies. However, Beaupre's aim is to return to the level of excellence of his rookie year when he set the league on its ear with his sensational play in goal.

His Game — Quickness is the key to Beaupre's success in goal. His glove and stick hands have that cobra kind of speed that is necessary to halt the 100 m.p.h. shots launched in the NHL. He's up and down often but again is fast enough to frustrate his foes. Beaupre is small, but as he explains it: "I only have to stop the puck, not beat it up." Nevertheless, he guards his crease with uncommon fierceness, refusing to tolerate the presence of an opposing forward in that area.

Career — Beaupre arrived in the NHL as if he was the second coming of Terry Sawchuk. He stunned nearly everyone by winning a starting role with the North Stars in his rookie season, then bettered that by playing well enough during the first half of the season to become, at the age of 19, a starting goalkeeper in the NHL All-Star game. Beaupre's performance during his first season in the NHL was impressive enough to earn him third place in voting for the Calder Trophy awarded to the league's best rookie.

Notes — Played his junior hockey in Sudbury ... Though his name appears to be French, his ancestors are German ... Started three of Minnesota's five games in the 1981 Stanley Cup final against the Islanders and was the winning goalie in the North Stars' only victory in that series ... Nickname is Boo Boo ... Spent part of the off-season painting his home in Burnsville ... Relatively new to golf, but an ardent player.

Obtained — Second-round choice (37th overall) in 1980 draft.

Brian Bellows

23

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 194 lbs.

181 cm. — 88 kg.

Age: 18 (Sept. 1, 1964)

Born: St. Catharines, Ont.

Off-Season Home: St. Catharines, Ont.

Left Handed, Shoots Right

1981-82 — The manner in which Brian Bellows finished last season says a great deal about what his presence on the ice means to a team. His last game of 1981-82 was the deciding game of the Memorial Cup championships, symbolic of Canadian junior supremacy. His Kitchener Rangers defeated Sherbrooke, 5-2. Bellows scored the first three Kitchener goals and assisted on the next two. Even though he missed 21 games because of separations of his right shoulder, he scored 45 goals and 97 points in 47 regular-season contests. His leadership qualities — he became captain of the Rangers at the age of 16 — were equally important in Kitchener's successful quest of Canada's junior title.

His Game — "Bellows brings Gordie Howe to mind in one respect," says Coach Glen Sonmor. "You tend not to notice him until he either puts the puck in the net or sets up a teammate. He is not spectacular, but he's awfully effective." He is a strong skater with excellent balance and owns an outstanding shot, both wrist and slap. Bellows is an unselfish performer who passes well in traffic and with equal skill to both sides. He is good in the corners and plays a physical game without drawing many penalties. At Kitchener he killed penalties, played on the power play and excelled in both areas.

Career — He is, without question, the most highly-publicized junior player ever to emerge from the NHL draft. His play at the age of 16 had the league's coaches and general managers beside themselves in anticipation. His play when he was 17 sent them on a similar high. Central Scouting ranked him No. 1 overall among every player eligible for last June's draft. Sports Illustrated and Inside Sports carried long stories on him. Hockey writers from all over North America beat a path to Kitchener to interview him. Through it all, he maintained his poise and balance and lived up to those rave reviews.

Notes — While he was injured and Coach Joe Crozier was serving a suspension, Bellows coached Kitchener for two games and finished with a 1-1 record ... Two years ago he played under new Chicago Coach Orv Tessier ... Has one brother and two sisters ... His father is a foreman at a General Motors plant ... Bellows is single.

Obtained — First-round choice (second overall) in 1982 draft.

Neal Broten

(BRAW-ten)

CENTER

7

Height: 5-9 — Weight: 160 lbs.
172.5 cm. — 72 kg.

Age: 23 (Nov. 29, 1959)

Born: Roseau, Minn.

Off-Season Home: Roseau, Minn.

Right Handed, Shoots Left

1981-82 — Best hockey player ever to emerge from the United States of America? Neal Broten by a landslide. The season of 1981-82 was the proof of that pudding. The youngster from Roseau, Minn., scored more goals, assists and points than any American player to precede him in the NHL. He also scored more in those same categories than any first-year player in the history of the Minnesota franchise. He finished second in scoring among all rookies in the NHL and fell just two points short of the 100-point mark. Along the way, he established a team record by scoring goals in seven straight contests.

His Game — Broten's sleight of hand with the puck would turn Mandrake the Magician green with envy. Game after game he manages improvisations similar to those of a fine jazz musician. His skill at using his wingers made the line of Broten, Dino Ciccarelli and Tom McCarthy Minnesota's most effective combination during the second half of last season. His shot is the most accurate on the team at 20.2 percent, but not overpowering. However, his 38 goals bear witness to the fact that it gets the job done.

Career — He came to the North Stars with a substantial career behind him: Minnesota state tournament star for Roseau High School; Herb Brooks' recognition of him as the "best freshman ever to play at the University of Minnesota;" the Olympic gold medal in 1980; All-American and college player of the year honors when he returned to the UM. He joined the North Stars very late in the 1980-81 season, but became a regular on the club that went to the Stanley Cup finals.

Notes — His younger brother, Aaron, played high school and college hockey with him and performed for Colorado of the NHL last season ... Broten and his wife, Sally, were married in late June ... Scored a goal in his first NHL game ... Played for one NCAA title team at the University of Minnesota.

Obtained — Second-round choice (42nd overall) in 1979 draft.

Jack Carlson

21

Height: 6-3 — Weight: 205 lbs.
188 cm. — 92.2 kg.

Age: 28 (Aug. 23, 1954)

Born: Virginia, Minn.

Off-Season Home: Eden Prairie, Minn.

1981-82 — Considering the amount of time he spent on the ice, Jack Carlson's offensive figures during 1981-82 were respectable. His eight goals were the most he has scored in a single NHL season and only one short of his best total in the WHA. The 1981-82 output surely would have been higher had not a series of nagging injuries intervened. They ranged from a bruised foot to back muscle spasms to a groin pull and kept him off the ice for 23 regular-season games and three of the North Stars' four playoff contests.

His Game — There's no doubt that Carlson's game is the physical game. He finishes every check, takes out the man every chance he gets. He is one of the unquestioned heavyweight champs in the NHL. There is a tendency, however, to overlook his hockey skills in favor of his physical talents. That's not fair. He has shown again and again that he is an effective offensive performer, particularly in front of the net where he is hard to dislodge and where he can position himself for deflections and rebounds.

Career — Jack and his two brothers, Steve and Jeff, emerged from Virginia High School on Minnesota's Iron Range and went on to play together for several professional teams, including the WHA Fighting Saints in St. Paul. They went their separate ways in later years. Jack wound up performing for New England's WHA team, from which he was acquired by Minnesota at the insistence of Coach Glen Sonmor. Sonmor had been Carlson's coach in his St. Paul days.

Notes — Carlson did NOT play a role in the movie, Slapshot. His brothers were part of the cast of the Paul Newman show ... Jack and his wife, Toni, live in Eden Prairie ... Had spinal disk surgery in 1979 and missed all of the 1979-80 season ... Wears contact lenses on the ice, glasses off of it ... Holds the team record of 48 penalty minutes in a playoff game.

Obtained — Traded by New England (WHA) to Minnesota in February, 1979, for future considerations.

Dino Ciccarelli

(siss-ah-RELL-ee)

20

Height: 5-10 — Weight: 181 lbs.
175 cm. — 81 kg.

Age: 22 (Feb. 8, 1960)

Born: Sarnia, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Sarnia, Ont.

1981-82 — Dino Ciccarelli became the greatest single-season goal scorer in North Stars' history last year when he turned on 55 red lights, breaking Bill Goldsworthy's 1973-74 record by seven goals. It was that kind of year for Ciccarelli. He became the second North Star to break the 100-point barrier. He tied a long-standing NHL record by scoring 15 first goals of games. He recorded four hat tricks, one in the playoffs, and had 17 multiple-goal games. He was chosen to play for the Campbell Conference in the NHL All-Star Game. He represented Canada in the World Championships. All in all, a vintage year for the young man from Sarnia, Ont.

His Game — You'll almost always find Ciccarelli somewhere near the net when the puck is in his foe's zone. He darts in and out, is in constant motion, but seldom is far from the crease. That means he's Dino-on-the-spot when the puck arrives. He shoots very quickly, often from unlikely angles. Though most of his goals are scored from close range, he possesses a dangerous slap shot.

Career — His career was nearly stillborn when he suffered a fractured femur at the start of his 1978-79 junior season in London, Ont. He played all of the next season with a steel rod in his leg and was so impeded by the injury that he was not chosen in the 1979 draft. One of Lou Nanne's wisest moves as a general manager was to then sign him as a free agent. Ciccarelli played more than half of the 1980-81 season at the North Stars' Oklahoma City farm, joined the NHL team with 32 games left and proceeded to make history. He scored 18 goals in his first 32 regular-season games, then set an NHL rookie record by scoring 14 goals in 19 playoff games.

Notes — Shared the team's most popular player award last year with linemate Neal Broten . . . Dino is not married . . . Has two brothers and one sister . . . Evokes cheers of "Dino, Dino, Dino" from the Met Center crowds . . . A good all-around athlete who won $3,500 in a Superstars competition two summers ago . . . Kept the metal rod that was placed in his leg as souvenir after it was removed.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent, September 28, 1979.

Age: 26 (June 10, 1956)

Born: Denver, Colo.

Off-Season Home: Minneapolis, Minn.

1981-82 — It would be hard to imagine a more frustrating season than the one endured last year by Mike Eaves. Going into the season he had apparently overcome the effects of a series of concussions that sidelined him in 1980-81 and was coming off a splendid showing for the United States in Canada Cup play. But two games into the season back trouble struck. He missed nine games, played seven games, missed 10 more games, played eight games, missed three games and so on until he played for the last time Jan. 21 in Los Angeles. Later in the season he went to Toronto where he was treated by injection of an enzyme into the afflicted area. He did not return to the ice, but has high hopes of playing in 1982-83.

His Game — Eaves is a thinking man on the ice. His precise moves and passes show an intelligent approach to the sport. He is a center who uses his wingers to best advantage, preferring to give them the puck if at all possible. However, he has a good, short-range shot he uses effectively. Eaves is at his best on the power play where his expertise is such that the team's coaches sought his aid in rearranging the North Stars' man-advantage attack during the 1979-80 season.

Career — Spells of brilliant play and spells of injury problems have alternated during Eaves' years in professional hockey. He won the Central League's rookie of the year honor in 1978-79, then was named the North Stars' best rookie in 1979-80. But concussions kept him out nearly half the season in 1980-81, then his back problem erupted last year.

Notes — Mike and his wife, Beth, became the parents of their first child, Benjamin, last season . . . Captain of the University of Wisconsin team for three seasons, he set a school scoring record in his college career . . . Played junior hockey in Canada although he was born in the U.S. . . . Named most valuable player in the WCHA as a senior.

Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

Off-Season Home: Windsor, Ont.

Left Handed, Shoots Left

1981-82 — The season of 1981-82 was symbolic of the progress Ron Friest has made since he first appeared on the Minnesota scene. Last season, like the four others that have preceded it, was largely spent toiling in the minor leagues. But that toil paid off with 32 goals and 31 assists at Nashville, Friest's best season in a league of that classification since he turned professional. The rugged competitor also logged 199 minutes in penalties for a personal career high. His performance impressed Minnesota's high command enough so that he was called up for 10 regular-season games and saw action in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

His Game — Hard work is the secret to Friest's success. He plays the game with intensity along the boards and in front of and behind the goal. He finishes his checks and is a force to reckon with if trouble should occur on the ice. Friest has a solid slap shot and has improved his touch around the goal every season that he has played professional hockey.

Career — When Friest first reported to a Minnesota training camp in the fall of 1978 there were few that would have wagered that he would one day wear a North Stars sweater. As it turned out, the bet would have paid off handsomely. Friest paid his dues in the IHL at Flint, in the EHL at Baltimore, in the CHL at Oklahoma City and Nashville and eventually pulled a green jersey over his head.

Notes — Played junior hockey for the Windsor Spitfires in Windsor, Ontario, his home town . . . He is married. His wife's name is Mary Anne . . . Scored a goal in his very first NHL outing in Boston Gardens against the Bruins on Jan. 12, 1981 . . . One of his junior coaches was former Detroit coach Wayne Maxner . . . Has two brothers and a sister.

Curt Giles

(Jiles)

2

Height: 5-8 — Weight: 180 lbs.
170 cm. — 81 kg.

Age: 24 (Nov. 30, 1958)

Born: The Pas, Man.

Off-Season Home: Edina, Minn.

1981-82 — Curt Giles recorded the best plus-minus figure, plus 15, for any Minnesota defenseman during the 1981-82 season. That statistic is indicative of Giles' value to the North Stars. Night in and night out, he's the steadiest of the Minnesotans on the blue line. He's played that way since he arrived here midway through the 1979-80 season. The past season was no exception. He was on the ice for only 79 goals-against and 13 of those were power-play tallies, giving him a net goals against of 66, best of any of the club's full-time rearguards.

His Game — At 5-8 and 180 pounds Giles is no Man Mountain Dean. But hitting is his game. The stocky performer may be the most dangerous of those players who has mastered the vanishing art of hip checking. His checks, delivered from his low center of gravity, often give the recipient an unexpected ride through the air. Despite his flair for playing the body, Giles doesn't pick up unnecessary penalties. His total of 87 minutes last season was his highest as a professional.

Career — Giles needed only a half-year of seasoning in the minor leagues after emerging from the University of Minnesota-Duluth. He's played in the NHL ever since. His performance so impressed his teammates in 1980-81 that they voted him the Bill Masterton Memorial Cup as the club's most valuable player.

Notes — Curt and his wife, Mary Pat, became the parents of their first child, Michael, during last season . . . Named to the All-America team twice during his college days at UMD where he earned a degree in secondary education . . . Enrolled at UMD when he was only 16 years old . . . Nickname is Pengy, short for Penguin.

Obtained — Fourth-round choice (54th overall) in 1978 draft.

Right Handed, Shoots Left

1981-82 — This young man from Sweden led the North Stars in a couple of important categories during his first year of play in the National Hockey League. He scored four shorthanded goals and was on the ice for the least goals-against of any of the team's league-leading penalty killers. Those two stats say a lot about his role with Minnesota during 1981-82. During the first half of the season he was used largely as a penalty killer. During the second half of the year he saw a great deal more action on a regular shift, scoring six of his eight full strength goals in that span.

His Game — Hakansson's game differs a lot from that of most of his fellow Swedes. "The toughest Swede I ever saw," says Coach Glen Sonmor. That sums up the way Hakansson plays. He hits hard, goes into the corners with vim and vigor and does not turn the other cheek when he is raked by an opponent. He does display many of the other attributes of players from his country. Speed and anticipation are his stock in trade, creating the opportunities for numerous breakaways.

Career — Hakansson came to the North Stars from AIK Solna, a Stockholm-based team in Sweden's Elite Division. In fact, he played against Minnesota during the Dagens Nyheter tournament in Stockholm in the fall of 1980. He was chosen for the Swedish National team in 1980 and represented his nation in the Canada Cup tournament in 1981.

Notes — He is an accomplished sailplane pilot who has logged more than 600 hours at the controls of a glider ... A graduate of Stockholm's Royal Institute of Technology in metallurgy ... Is not married ... Nicknames are Hawk or Andi ... excellent command of English ... Missed six games last season because of a shoulder separation.

Obtained — Signed as a free agent, July, 1981.

Craig Hartsburg

4

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 200 lbs.

183 cm. — 85.5 kg.

Age: 23 (June 29, 1959)

Born: Stratford, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Bloomington, Minn.

1981-82 — You can page through the 15-year history of the North Stars and not find a finer season for one of the team's defensemen than the year recorded by Craig Hartsburg in 1981-82. He started the season by playing for Canada in the Canada Cup and ended it nine months later by emerging as one of the four best defensemen in the World Championships. Between those two events Hartsburg established records for Minnesota defensemen by scoring 77 points and 60 assists. Those totals broke the previous records by an awe-inspiring 30 points and 23 assists. During the regular season he put together the best back-to-back performance ever by a Minnesota defenseman, four points one night against Toronto, five points the next game against Detroit. In recognition of these feats he was chosen to play in the NHL All-Star game for the second time in three seasons.

His Game — Craig Hartsburg is an offensive defenseman, no question about it. That's not to say he neglects the defensive portion of his game. Far from it. But his most important role is to lug the puck into the opposing end and to keep it there until the red light is turned on. A fine, strong skater and puck handler, Hartsburg has a hard, accurate shot from the point that is dangerous in its own right and also tends to produce rebound after rebound for Minnesota forwards.

Career — Hartsburg was one of the teen-age phenoms who turned professional with Birmingham of the WHA at the age of 18. When the WHA joined forces with the NHL, he became available for the draft and Minnesota made him its first choice in 1979. He has led the North Stars' defensemen in scoring in each of his three seasons here and has been chosen as the team's most valuable defenseman the last two seasons.

Notes — Served as one of the club's alternate captains last season . . . Craig and his wife, Peggy, are the parents of a boy and a girl . . . His father was a teammate of Coach Glen Sonmor . . . Scored three goals and three assists for Canada last spring in the World Championships and was named to the tournament's second all-star team . . . Played junior hockey in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. . . . Scored the winning goal in his first NHL All-Star game in 1980 . . . Took 204 shots last year, more than any Minnesota defenseman.

Obtained — First-round choice (sixth overall) in 1979 draft.

Mark Johnson

9

Height: 5-9 — Weight: 160 lbs.
172 cm. — 72 kg.

Age: 25 (Sept. 22, 1957)

Born: Minneapolis, Minn.

Off-Season Home: Madison, Wis.

1981-82 — Mark Johnson returned to the city of his birth last season and Minnesota's brisk climate seemed to agree with the player who was one of the heroes of the United States' 1980 Olympic triumph. He was traded by Pittsburgh to Minnesota in time to play 10 regular-season games and Minnesota's four playoff outings. During that span he contributed to the North Stars' power-play and penalty killing units and added depth to the team's center corps. Though a knee ailment held his season-long total of games to 56, he managed 12 goals, 10 with the Penguins and two with the North Stars.

His Game — Intelligence and a sense of where the puck is combine to make Johnson an asset at all times, but especially when his team has a man advantage or is a man short. Ever since he was a college player, Johnson has been a superior performer on the power play, directing traffic much as if he were a quarterback on a football field. His reactions and quickness on skates make him a valuable addition to Minnesota's outstanding penalty-killing crew.

Career — An All-American and WCHA scoring champion at the University of Wisconsin, Johnson emerged from college to lead the United States' 1980 Olympic team in scoring and to play a major role in that squad's gold-medal triumph. Pittsburgh's third choice in the 1977 draft, he turned professional after the Olympics and spent one full season and part of two others with the Penguins. During two of those years at Pittsburgh his performances during the playoffs were outstanding.

Notes — He played at Wisconsin for his father, Bob, who now is coach of Calgary's NHL entry . . . Mark's wife is named Leslie . . . Played high school hockey at Madison, Wisconsin Memorial . . . One of his teammates at Wisconsin was North Star Mike Eaves . . . His brother, Pete, also played at Wisconsin . . . Played on the USA Canada Cup team his dad coached in the fall of 1981.

Obtained — From Pittsburgh in March, 1982 for the North Stars' 1982 second-round draft choice.

Al MacAdam

25

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 180 lbs.

180 cm. — 81 kg.

Age: 30 (March 16, 1952)

Born: Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Off-Season Home: Morell, P.E.I.

1981-82 — Al MacAdam did not play a noticeably different game in 1981-82 than he did in any of the three previous seasons, but less pucks went in the net for him, 18, compared to 21, 42 and 24 in the three preceding years. The verdict? Lady Luck failed to smile on the genial gentleman from Prince Edward Island. "Al did all the same things that have worked for him, but there are years when the puck doesn't bounce for you," explains Coach Glen Sonmor. Despite the lack of cooperation from fate, MacAdam finished sixth overall in Minnesota scoring, was one of the keys to the team's singular success in penalty killing and a leader in his role as alternate captain.

His Game — If you were climbing the Matterhorn, the guy you would want on the other end of the rope would be MacAdam. He's that dependable. He plays his wing in textbook fashion, seldom if ever out of position. He's good around the net, combative when the situation demands it and as sound a defensive player as there is on the team's roster.

Career — You can count the survivors of the California Seals on one hand. Two of them, MacAdam and Gilles Meloche, play with the North Stars. MacAdam had a cup of coffee (and a Stanley Cup ring) with the Flyers when he broke into the NHL, but his first full seasons were with the Golden Seals. He moved with that team when it went to Cleveland, then came to Minnesota as part of the 1978 merger between the Barons and the North Stars. He has been a fixture in the Minnesota lineup ever since.

Notes — Won the NHL's Masterton Trophy and four team awards in 1979-80 . . . Has a degree in history from the University of Prince Edward Island where he played college hockey . . . He and his wife, Anne, are the parents of two daughters and a son . . . Was captain of the Cleveland team in 1977-78 . . . Missed only one game this year, because of a bruised foot; has been out only three games in the last three seasons, 14 in the eight years since he started playing regularly in the NHL.

Obtained — Minnesota-Cleveland merger, June, 1978.

Brad Maxwell

5

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 192 lbs.

185 cm. — 86 kg.

Age: 25 (July 8, 1957)

Born: Brandon, Man.

Off-Season Home: Burnsville, Minn.

1981-82 — When you look at the succession of injuries suffered by Brad Maxwell — concussion, groin pull, bruised shoulder, banged-up knee — his performance last season was remarkable. He played in 51 of 80 regular-season games, yet managed 10 goals and 21 assists. His 10 goals ranked second among all of the North Stars' defensemen. Further, Maxwell provided a large measure of the team's muscle when he was healthy.

His Game — He has a hard, very accurate shot, is an excellent puck carrier in any area of the rink. Maxwell is particularly effective from the point on the power play where he often takes advantage of his agility to beat a defender to move into the 30- to 35-foot shooting range from where his shot is even more deadly. He has the strength and determination to control the boards and the crease in front of his net.

Career — Maxwell has been plagued by injuries during the last two seasons — he missed 53 games in 1980-81 and 29 games last year — but he has been a force for the club when he has been in good health. He held nearly all of the team's scoring records for defensemen until they were broken by Craig Hartsburg last season. He came out of junior hockey in New Westminster, B.C., where he captained that team to the Memorial Cup title and emerged as the North Stars' No. 1 selection in the 1977 draft.

Notes — Brad and his wife, Cathy, are the parents of a daughter . . . He is the best golfer on the team, playing to a five handicap . . . Enjoys hunting . . . Played with the Rangers' Barry Beck at New Westminster . . . When his junior club won the Memorial Cup, two of the players on the opposing Ottawa team were Steve Payne and Bobby Smith . . . His sister, Rhonda, is married to St. Louis' Rick Lapointe, like Maxwell a No. 1 draft choice.

Obtained — First-round choice (seventh overall) in 1977 draft.

Tom McCarthy

11

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 197 lbs.

185 cm, — 89 kg.

Age: 22 (July 31, 1960)

Born: Toronto, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Burnsville, Minn.

1981-82 — Slightly past the halfway point of last season, Tom McCarthy was placed on a line with Neal Broten and Dino Ciccarelli. The line clicked and McCarthy clicked at the same time. He had three goals and two assists when he joined Broten and Ciccarelli. He ended the regular season with 12 goals and 30 assists. McCarthy has been troubled by injuries in each of his seasons with the North Stars and 1981-82 was no exception. A torn calf muscle, pulled hip muscle and bruised sternum kept him out of 40 contests.

His Game — McCarthy's ratio of goals to assists changed dramatically last season. He had four more assists than goals in 1979-80, two more in 1980-81, 18 more in 1981-82. That is prima facie evidence that his game has veered toward the playmaking role. Ciccarelli had 55 goals, Broten had 38 and McCarthy played a part in many of them. He is the largest member of that line and did a lion's share of the work along the boards and in the corners.

Career — Talent never has been a problem for McCarthy. He has a ton of it. Keeping that talent on the ice on a regular basis has posed a bit of a problem during his three years as a North Star. Injuries of various types have cost him 70 of a potential 240 regular-season games. When he has been healthy, McCarthy has been a positive force, offensively and defensively, for the North Stars.

Notes — He was a first-round choice by the North Stars in the 1979 draft. He was taken 10th overall, four rounds behind Craig Hartsburg . . . Played junior hockey for Oshawa, Ont . . . Nickname is Jug.

Obtained — First-round choice (10th overall) in the 1979 draft.

Ron Meighan

(MEE-un)

DEFENSE

28

Height: 6-3 — Weight: 194 lbs.
191 cm. — 88 kg.

Age: 19 (May 26, 1963)

Born: Montreal, Que.

Off-Season Home: Gloucester, Ont.

1981-82 — If you're searching for an adjective that would describe Ron Meighan's play during 1981-82, splendid would fill the bill. Voted the most valuable defenseman in the Ontario Hockey League, the North Stars' No. 1 draft choice in 1981 scored 27 goals in 58 games for his junior team and one goal in his seven contests with Minnesota. He was particularly effective on the power play for Niagara Falls where he scored 10 man-advantage tallies. During the season he made three separate trips to join the North Stars, the longest for five games and the other two for one game each.

His Game — Mobility is one of the keys to Meighan's ability. Despite his size, he has remarkable agility and balance. Earlier in his junior career he was not noted as a goal scorer, but his 27-goal output last season put that problem to rest. He has a good shot from the point, witness his 10 power-play goals. It is usually on the net or close enough to give his teammates a good chance for deflection. He takes out the man, but does not pile up an extraordinary amount of penalties.

Career — The process of gaining maturity is evident in Meighan's three seasons at Niagara Falls — he started there at the age of 16. He advanced from three goals and 13 points as a 16-year-old to eight goals and 35 points as a 17-year-old to 27 goals and 68 points as an 18-year-old.

Notes — Wears contact lenses when he plays hockey ... Also plays tennis and basketball and participated in track ... Meighan is not married ... He has one sister ... Scored his first and only NHL goal against Edmonton last Dec. 19 ... Was coached in 1979-80 by former North Star Fred Stanfield ... Scored three game-winning goals last season ... Was chosen first all-star defenseman in the OHL.

Obtained — First-round choice (13th overall) in 1981 draft.

Gilles Meloche

(JHIL) (meh-LAWSH)

GOALTENDER

27

Height: 5-9 — Weight: 186 lbs.

172 cm. — 84 kg.

Age: 32 (July 12, 1950)

Born: Montreal, Que.

Off-Season Home: Brownsburg, Que.

1981-82 — His teammates selected Gilles Meloche as the most valuable player on the Minnesota squad after the 1981-82 season. His performance during that season certainly merited the choice. Meloche won 26 games, fifth most of any NHL goalie. It was his third straight 20-victory season. He played in 51 contests and started the first 17 straight games of the season. His shots-stopped percentage of .8931 was sixth best in the league. He recorded his 17th career regular-season shutout.

His Game — Eleven full seasons in the NHL have allowed Meloche to hone and perfect his goalkeeping style. The basic elements of his game are to stand up as long as possible, to cut the angles carefully, to force the shooter into making a mistake. Another strong point of his game is his ability to pass the puck to his teammates. He has been credited with 12 assists in his NHL career, including a then-record six with California in 1974-75.

Career — It may have not seemed so at the time but the early years of Meloche's career, spent with the perennial underdog California team, played an important role in making him one of the NHL's premier goalkeepers. There were many nights when he would make from 40 to 50 saves, literally standing on his head, and the Golden Seals would lose, 2-1 or 3-1. But Meloche feels that those experiences, traumatic at the time, made him a better goalie today. He spent five seasons on the shores of San Francisco Bay, then moved to Cleveland when the team was transplanted there. He and Al MacAdam are the last two players who performed for the Barons to survive the merger with Minnesota. Over his 11-year career he has amassed more playing time than any other NHL goalie.

Notes — Chosen on the Campbell Conference team for the NHL All-Star game. It was his second All-Star appearance . . . He and his wife, Nicole, are the parents of a boy and a girl . . . Second-oldest (to Fred Barrett) North Star . . . Owns a restaurant in Montreal . . . His brother, Denis, played in the WHA . . . His Minnesota MVP award was his second. He also won in 1978-79 . . . Passed the 30,000-minute mark in playing time last season.

1981-82 — Steve Payne scored 30 or more goals for the third season in succession last year when he connected 33 times. His goal total was his second best as a professional. So was his season record of 78 points. Further, he earned more assists, 45, than he ever had in his four full seasons as a professional. He came on with a rush late in the season when he scored nine of his 33 goals in the last 12 games he played in the regular schedule. That surge continued into the playoffs where he scored four goals in the four games that the North Stars lasted in Stanley Cup action.

His Game — When Payne's game is cooking, you'll see a lot of him near the opposition crease and in the slot. He has the size and determination to stand his ground and the quick release to get away his shot in heavy traffic. He is willing to take a hit or hits to score a goal. He is a strong skater and it is difficult to knock him off the puck. He often scores in bunches and has had at least one hat trick in every NHL season.

Career — There is no doubt that the peak of Payne's first four years in the NHL was reached in the 1981 Stanley Cup playoffs when he scored 17 goals in 19 games. But the young man from Toronto has been a consistent goal scorer ever since he joined the North Stars. His best regular-season record — best ever by a Minnesota left winger — was his 42-goal season in 1979-80. It is the playoffs, however, that bring out the best in him. He has scored 28 playoff goals in the NHL, the most ever by any North Star.

Notes — Interested in high-performance autos ... His nickname is Rooster ... Steve's wife is named Donna ... Played junior hockey at Ottawa on a line with teammate Bobby Smith and Chicago's Tim Higgins ... Played in the 1980 NHL All-Star Game.

Willi Plett

24

Height: 6-3 — Weight: 211 lbs.
191 cm. — 96 kg.

Age: 27 (June 7, 1955)

Born: Paraguay, South America

Off-Season Home: Atlanta, GA

1981-82 — The National Hockey League career of Willi Plett has consisted of peaks and valleys. His performance last season surely was respectable — 21 goals and 57 points — but it was a sharp dropoff from the previous season when he recorded 38 goals and 68 points and added eight more tallies in the playoffs. Plett, however, reached a new career high in penalty minutes with 288 in 1981-82 and passed the 1,000-minute mark in the penalty box.

His Game — "I'm glad to see Willi join us," said Fred Barrett after Plett was dealt from Calgary to Minnesota. The North Stars defenseman regards Plett as one of the NHL's most difficult players to dislodge from in front of the net. "I know he gave me a workout every time we played Calgary," recalled Barrett. Plett serves as one of the league's finest screens, especially on the power play, and is a dangerous tip-in artist. As his penalty total indicates, he plays the game tough. He controls play along the boards and in back of the net.

Career — The high point of Plett's career arrived two seasons back when he scored a Calgary team record 38 goals in the regular season. Earlier, he was voted the NHL's rookie of the year for 1976-77 when he scored 33 goals in 64 games during his first season for the Flames. Over his six full seasons in the league he has scored 20 or more goals each year except one.

Notes — Willi and his wife, Robin, are the parents of two sons . . . His 288 penalty minutes last season established a Calgary team record and are 101 minutes greater than the Minnesota club record . . . He was a fifth-round draft choice in 1975 . . . Plett's parents were born in the Soviet Union of German parentage. They migrated after World War II to Paraguay where Willi was born. The family moved to Canada where the youngster was raised . . . Spent his total career in the NHL with the Flames before he was traded to the North Stars on his 27th birthday.

Obtained — Traded by Calgary to Minnesota in June, 1982, for Steve Christoff and Bill Nyrop.

Gordie Roberts

10

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 193 lbs.

180 cm. — 86.8 kg.

Age: 25 (Oct. 2, 1957)

Born: Detroit, Mich.

Off-Season Home: Bloomington, Minn.

1981-82 — The best measure of Gordie Roberts' play last season was the KSTP-AM Most Improved Player award voted him by the writers and broadcasters who cover the team on a regular basis. The journalists took note of the changes in his game that made him one of the club's most-dependable defenders. His point production went down, but his value went up. "No one ever deserved the award more than Gordie," said General Manager Lou Nanne.

His Game — The earlier years of Roberts' professional career saw him attempt to play the role of the Second Coming of Bobby Orr. Roberts' dashing style was exciting and productive of piles of points. However, he took a long look at the North Stars' supply of offensive defensemen and changed his style to a stay-at-home game. The new Roberts is surely one of the club's most effective defensemen and, game in and game out, the toughest North Star on the blue line.

Career — The native of Detroit was signed at the age of 18 by the World Hockey Association's New England team and played five and a half seasons for the Whalers before he was dealt to Minnesota. He led all WHA defensemen in scoring in back-to-back seasons, 1977-78 and 1978-79.

Notes — Played for the United States team in the 1982 World Championships at Helsinki where he led the USA in scoring with seven points and in penalty minutes with 12 ... His wife, Marlo, accompanied him on the European journey ... Named after Gordie Howe, he assisted on the final regular-season goal scored by the hockey legend ... His brother, Doug, played at Michigan State ... Runner-up to Coach Glen Sonmor as most-avid newspaper reader on the club ... A talented tennis player.

Obtained — Traded by Hartford to Minnesota in December, 1980, for Mike Fidler.

Gary Sargent

22

Height: 5-10 — Weight: 210 lbs.

175 cm. — 95 kg.

Age: 28 (Feb. 18, 1954)

Born: Red Lake, Minn.

Off-Season Home: Bemidji, Minn.

1981-82 — Last season was Gary Sargent's winter of discontent. The talented defenseman's comeback, some six months after spinal disk surgery, was aborted after 15 games that saw him struggle in the face of discomfort and pain. He attempted to play on three different occasions, but managed seven games the first time, four the second and four the third and last time.

His Game — When Sargent is physically fit, his skills make him one of the NHL's premier offensive defensemen. He has a fine shot, is an expert passer, a strong puck carrier and possesses a great sense of anticipation. Sargent is particularly effective on the power play where he not only scores plenty of goals on his own, but also sets up his teammates with a hard, low shot that creates a large number of rebounds.

Career — He emerged from Bemidji High School where he was one of the finest all-around athletes ever to perform. He played his junior hockey in Fargo, N.D., and turned professional with Los Angeles in 1974. Rookie of the year for the Kings in 1975-76, he earned recognition as one of the outstanding young rearguards in the game. Minnesota obtained his services as a free agent in 1978. After one sparkling season that saw him chosen to play in the 1979 All-Star Game, his back ailment surfaced and eventually led to surgery and the question mark that revolves around his future.

Notes — Was offered a college scholarship in football and a contract in professional baseball ... First played in the Met during the Minnesota High School State Tournament ... He and his wife, Jay, are the parents of a girl ... An ardent hunter and fisherman ... His brother, Earl, also has played professional hockey ... Nickname is Sarge.

Obtained — As a free agent from Los Angeles in June, 1978; compensation to the Kings: Steve Jensen, Rick Hampton, Dave Gardner.

Bobby Smith

15

Height: 6-4 — Weight: 212 lbs.
190 cm. — 95 kg.
Age: 24 (Feb. 12, 1958)
Born: North Sydney, N.S.
Off-Season Home: Ottawa, Ont.

1981-82 — Records fell right and left during Bobby Smith's fourth season with the North Stars. First and foremost, he became the first Minnesota performer to pass the 100-point mark in a single season. His final 1981-82 total of 114 points on 43 goals and 71 assists established a club record. So did the seven points he scored on four goals and three assists during the Armistice Day Massacre of the Winnipeg Jets (15-2, North Stars). Smith's scoring was consistent — he had 23 goals and 38 assists halfway through the year — and almost equally balanced between home and the road — he scored 22 goals at the Met, 21 in other rinks. Finally, he was one of the team's most-effective contributors during Minnesota's brief stay in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

His Game — Smith is a dominant player when he is on the ice. He controls the puck and controls the flow of the game. His style is to carry the puck into the opposition's zone, then to look for an opening to thread a pass to one of his wingers. He is particularly imposing on the power play where he scored 20 of his goals and assisted on countless others. His size and extra-long reach give him an edge on his foes.

Career — He has fulfilled the promise that was foreseen when he became the first choice overall in the NHL draft of 1978. He has led the team in scoring in every year but one, 1979-80, when a broken ankle kept him out of 19 games. He has averaged 32 goals and 91 points a season in those four years. After emerging from Ottawa, Ont., as Canada's No. 1 junior player, he went on to win the NHL's Calder Trophy as rookie of the year in 1978-79. His progress also can be measured by the improvement in his point total each year since that first season — up nine points the second year, up 10 points the third year, up 21 points the fourth year.

Notes — Has played in the last two NHL All-Star games . . . Scored six points for Team Canada in last spring's World Championships . . . Is an active participant in National Hockey League Players Association affairs . . . Has a 37-inch reach . . . Smith and his wife, Beth, were married this past summer . . . Played on the same junior line with Steve Payne, his linemate for much of his Minnesota career. The third member of that junior line at Ottawa was Chicago's Tim Higgins.

Obtained — First-round choice (first overall) in 1978 draft.

Ken Solheim

(SOUL-hyme)

12

Height: 6-2 — Weight: 199 lbs.

185 cm. — 90 kg.

Age: 21 (March 27, 1961)

Born: Hythe, Alta.

Off-Season Home: Grand Prairie, Alta.

1981-82 — This strapping, handsome young man has been somewhat of an enigma since he was acquired in the middle of the 1980-81 season. He has performed with great distinction at the junior and Central League level, has shown flashes of brilliance in NHL play, but has not played at a consistent level in the majors. Last season was a case in point: He scored 23 goals in 44 games at Nashville, four in 29 games at Minnesota. He started the season with the North Stars, was sent to the South Stars, then called up three times until he stayed for the final 10 games of the year.

His Game — The tools of the trade all are evident in Solheim's game. He is tall and well-muscled, has a shot that blows away goalkeepers, is a powerful skater and has a fine attitude. General Manager Lou Nanne and Coach Glen Sonmor believe that patience is the key to his development. They feel that time will work wonders for this youngster who is only one full season removed from junior hockey.

Career — Solheim created an awesome set of statistics while playing for Medicine Hat in the Western Hockey League. During his final junior season — an abbreviated one at that — he scored 68 goals in 64 games and earned 43 assists for a total of 111 points. That kind of play impressed Chicago, which chose him early in the second round of the 1980 draft, and Minnesota, which insisted he be part of the trade that sent Glen Sharpley to the Hawks.

Notes — Solheim is not married . . . He scored a goal on his first shot ever in Stanley Cup play in the fifth and deciding game against Buffalo in the 1981 quarterfinals . . . Grand Prairie, his home town, is some 200 miles north of Edmonton in Alberta's Peace River country . . . Plays baseball in the summer . . . Has two sisters and a brother.

Obtained — From Chicago with a second-round draft choice in 1981 for Glen Sharpley in December, 1980.

Tim Young

17

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 190 lbs.
185 cm. — 81 kg.

Age: 27 (Feb. 22, 1955)

Born: Scarborough, Ont.

Off-Season Home: Eden Prairie, Minn.

1981-82 — The key to Tim Young's 1981-82 season was turned a couple months before the team showed up at training camp. Young, coming off a knee injury in the 1981 playoffs, broke an ankle while playing in a neighborhood softball game. That mishap set him back to such an extent that he never really caught up last season. He played 49 games, but in many of them was not up to the physical standard demanded in the NHL. His totals of games-played, goals, assists and points all were the lowest in his seven-year career in the league.

His Game — There are many who say that Tim Young is the most-gifted player on the Minnesota roster in terms of what he can do in a hockey game. Shooting, passing, stickhandling — all of them are second nature to him. He also is an expert penalty killer and a deft performer on the point on the power play.

Career — His seven seasons in the Minnesota uniform make Young second only to Fred Barrett in seniority. Originally a first-round draft choice by Los Angeles, he was acquired by the North Stars in a trade and went on to set team records for assists and points in his second professional season that held up until they were broken by Bobby Smith last season. He has earned more assists in his career than any North Star in the team's history, ranks second on the all-time point list and third in goals. He barged into the NHL record book one night in Madison Square Garden when he scored five goals on five shots against the Rangers during a 1978-79 contest.

Notes — Young and his wife, Mary, are the parents of a son ... Played junior hockey at Ottawa, where he scored 163 points in his final junior season ... Has two nicknames, Blade and Regan ... Served as the North Stars captain in 1981-82 ... Played in the 1977 All-Star Game.

Obtained — From Los Angeles for a second-round draft choice in June, 1975.

NORTH STARS' TRAINERS

An important ingredient in the success of any athletic team is the talent embodied in its training staff. The North Stars are fortunate to employ a staff that has the knowledge, experience and dedication that is necessary to do the job. Trainer Dick (Doc) Rose, 44, is in his 13th season at Minnesota. He is back in good physical condition after a long recovery from spinal disk surgery. Rose joined the North Stars in 1969 after gaining experience with the United States Olympic and National teams and the South St. Paul Steers of the United States League. Rose is a native of St. Paul and makes his home in Roseville. Assistant Larry Ness, 28, served as trainer for the United States team in last year's Canada Cup competition and worked for teams in Milwaukee and Binghamton, N.Y., before he joined the North Stars two years ago. Ness was born and raised in Hibbing and attended Hibbing Community College and the University of Minnesota. He and his wife, Ruth, make their home in Burnsville. They are the parents of a daughter, Nicole.

TELEVISION AND RADIO

Followers of the North Stars will be able to watch or listen to all of the team's regular-season games, every playoff contest and half of the club's exhibition schedule this season.

KSTP-AM, with Al Shaver at the helm, will carry each regular-season and playoff game and five of the team's exhibition contests. KMSP-TV, manned by Bob Kurtz and Tom Reid, will screen 25 away-from-home outings.

Shaver will launch into his 16th season in the NHL, all of them with the North Stars. The ebullient Shaver is one of the league's senior broadcasters in terms of years of service.

Color Commentator on KSTP-1500 will be Russ Small. Small comes to the Twin Cities from Baltimore and formerly broadcast games played by the Hershey Bears in the American Hockey League.

Kurtz, one of the voices of the Minnesota Twins on Channel Nine, starts his fourth year with the North Stars. Reid, a former defensive stalwart with Minnesota, will begin his third year of television broadcasting. He spent two earlier seasons in radio color.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Space in the Met Center pressbox is limited to those reporters and broadcasters covering the game.

Season press passes are issued to reporters and broadcasters who regularly cover the team. Single-game passes are available upon request to Dick Dillman, Hockey Information Director, Minnesota North Stars, Met Center, 7901 Cedar Ave. South, Bloomington, Minn. 55420, 612-853-9377.

Single-game parking passes are extremely limited and should be requested well in advance of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers from television stations, accredited daily newspapers and major wire services may shoot from behind the goals, from the pressbox, from the concourse level and from the following seat locations:

D-A-1, J-A-1, K-A-3 and 4, R-A-1, V-A-8 and X-A-7.

COMMUNICATIONS

Transmission service is available from Tom Dillman or Lisa Dillman. Their telephone number is 429-3564.

RADIO AND TELEVISION

Visiting television facilities are located on the south side of Met Center. The visiting radio position is on the north side. Requests for telephone circuits should be made directly to Northwestern Bell.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

The North Stars' pressbox provides these services:

1. Press box announcing service.
2. Pre-game information and statistics and summaries at the completion of each period and at the conclusion of the game.
3. Closed circuit television pickup when the game is being televised and video-tape pickup when the game is not televised.
4. A meal before each game in the Center Club and refreshments in the Center Club between periods and after the game.
5. Soft drinks for broadcast crews working in the radio-television area.
6. Reports on injuries, calls by officials and other situations that take place on the ice.
7. Transportation arrangements for newsmen faced with tight schedules.
8. Reports on scores of games in other cities.
